A. K. McCLURE stating that loyal citizens are held as prisoners by the enemy—and suggests retaliation by securing secession sympathisers at home.

Chambersburg, July 30th.

Major Genl. N. P. BANKS.

Dear Sir, Five private citizens of this county who got into the enemies lines by our troops falling back from Martinsburg, are now prisoners in the common jail at Winchester. Among them is J. Allison Eyster, Esq. the leading merchant of this place. It is not pretended that they are spies ; but they are held as prisoners of war, & it is said compelled to work on entrenchments, for the offence of being loyal private citizens. All efforts to have these men discharged have failed ; and it seems that nothing but a like system enforced against leading civilians who are in notorious hostility to the government will secure the safety of our private citizens who are by accident taken by the rebels. I submit these facts to your better judgment. There is certainly a pressing necessity for some action to protect private citizens. I see Magraw & H who went to procure the body of Col. Cameron, have been imprisoned also. I beg leave to urge your attention to this feature of the war. It seems to me that a score or two of eminent rebel civilians compelled to dig entrenchments for us a while would have a wholesome effect.

Very truly yours,

A. K. McCLURE.

Mr. McJILTON, Surveyor of Baltimore, against employment of Secessionists in office, and recommending arrest of Edward Walters, of Baltimore.

Custom House Surveyors office,
Baltimore, August 14, 1861.

Maj. Genl. Banks, U. S. A.

Sandy Hook, Md.,

Sir:—I deem it to be my duty to inform you that Mr. Edw'd Walters, of the house of Wm. T. Walters & Co., of this city, says he has a permanent pass from Genl. Cameron to Virginia and back. He makes a trip nearly every week via the Point of Rocks, &c. He is one of our "unqualified" secessionist, and the house of which he is a member is one of the most notorious as advocating that faith.

I learn alas that Mr. Norris was in his company at the time of his (N?) arrest. Mr. Walters will start for Virginia in a few days, and, will, no doubt take his old route, would it not be well to have Walters searched, for he is after no good, Genl. Cameron has been imposed upon, if he has given this man a permanent pass.

I will see Genl. Dix this afternoon and state these things to him and it may be he will interest himself, at this end, to have him (Walters) arrested and compel him to give an account of himself.

There is a considerable feeling here in regard to these matters, especially so in reference to the employment of several avowed secessionists in the different Departments here. I am resolved, as far as I can, to have these things corrected. If the Government will permit its officials to employ its enemies, as I know they are doing here, it will take a very strong army to protect the loyal citizens. This is doing us immense damage. If it were otherwise the union cause would increase and strengthen daily. As it is, I regret to say, it is waning.

Very resp'y, yr. obt. s't,
JOHN F. McJILTON.

GOV. HICKS on Claims of Howard.

State of { STATE ARMS. } Maryland,
Executive Chamber.
Annapolis, August 22, 1861.

Maj'r Genl. Banks, U. S. A.

My Dear Sir: You will recollect, doubtless, that in an interview, I had the Honor to hold with you at Fort McHenry, I spoke of a man, Howard, who I had sent out as a spy, and that he was doing service, that he would have to stop in consequence of my Executive fund (ordinarily abundant) being Exhausted, by means of extraordinary demands occasioned by the Crisis, when you kindly said you would pay not only expenses incurred in travel, but for personal service and time, for reliable persons thus employed—

This man has been more than two months passing through secession Counties in our State, and has been in Virginia, He is now employed by Lt. Genl. Scott, in lower Potomac Counties. What I desire, is, that you be so kind as to write Hon. S. Cameron, Sec. of War, and say that you think this man Hd. shall be reasonably compensated.—He has spent his own money. I have not furnished a Dollar, and Genl. Cameron he H. says wishes to hear from you.—I wrote the Sec.—This is a valuable man, is shrewd and reliable, and if stopp'd will be a loss to us—with lively recollections of our brief Intercourse and your kindly manner, and a good hope that all will be well—am yrs. THO. H. HICKS.

Department of State,
Washington, October 14, 1861.

To Major General
Nathaniel P. Banks,
Darnestown, Montgomery Co. Maryland.

General:

I enclose a copy of an anonymous intercepted letter from Sandy Spring, Montgomery County, and recommend that Samuel C. Leach, the supposed writer, be arrested and taken to Fort McHenry near Baltimore.

I am your obedient servant,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

PRIVATE.

As to the query, "who is this?" it may be answered that the letter signed "Powhatan" is doubtless written by the Revd. Samuel V. Leech a preacher in the Methodist Church and stationed in the circuit where the letter is headed. The letter was shown to two persons confidently, and familiar with his hand writing, both pronounced it his, and one of them without seeing the heading or knowing its contents. It is generally understood that the Revd. gentleman is known (by his own declarations) to be a correspondent of the "Exchange" and contributor to its columns; and it is presumed also to the "Maryland Times" its successor if anything more rabid tho' courtly, against the Government. The whole thing "protracted meeting" "Triadelphia Factory" "cut off from $100" secession and all fit like two spoons from the same mould. "We pray much for you all" caps the climax.

General EDW. SHRIVER, letter upon Capt. Bevan & his command. Reported to be secessionists. No answer.

Frederick, Sept. 11, 1861.

Col. R. MORRIS COPELAND.

Dear Sir:—I hasten to reply to your letter of the 6th which was not received until last evening.

I have no personal knowledge either of Capt. Bevan or his command, but they are currently, and I believe correctly, reported to be disloyal and co-operating with those known to be arrayed against the Government, in his command, there may be some exceptions, as all who constitute it, are not individually known to me.

We have in our midst a musical Band, known as the "Frederick Cornet Band" who represent that they have been employed by one of the Indiana Regiments connected with Genl. Banks' Division and that they are to connect themselves with the Regiment on Friday next.

This Band, or a very large majority of it, are Secessionists of the bitterest dye, and ought not to be confided in, I have reason to believe that along the Potomac, at "Sandy Hook," and certainly at Hancock, communication is had with disloyal citizens of Virginia; and that persons, and especially ladies, are permitted to pass and repass with but little interruption. There may be other points that require attention.

It was my intention to have visited the camp of Genl. Banks to day, but the inclemency of the weather prevents it.

I am very respectfully yours,

EDW. SHRIVER.

J. BLY warns Genl. Banks against Revds. Mr. Krebs, Wilson & Martin, Methodist Preachers, &c.

Washington, Sept. 15, 1861.

General Banks,

Sir: Three Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church procured passes in Balto. to go from that City to Winchester, Va. &c. They are all earnest secessionists. Their names are J. S. Martin, Wm. Krebs and A. W. Wilson. The last named has gotten back to Balto. & is proclaiming his secession sympathies. It is the judgment of many good and true union men that the other two should not be allowed to return to Balt. They have already done much mischief there. Their passes were procured by E. Petherbridge who knew their sentiments well, having cooperated with them and others during the last twelve months in efforts to divide the M. E. Church on the slavery question, by Mason & Dixon's line. Strange as it may seem this same Petherbridge is in the service of the Government, as a recruiting officer. One day he procured passes for well known & mischievous secessionists and the next recruits for the Government. The great body of the Methodist people of Baltimore are union people & it will be a service to them as well as to the cause of the Union in that City if they are not permitted to return.

Very Respectfully,

J. BLY.

G. E. MORGAN of Balto., informs Genl. Banks of arms secreted on the premises of Rev. W. H. Wilson in Frederick County Va.

Balto., Sept. 15, 1861.

Gen. N. P. Banks,

Sir:—I have received tolerably reliable information of a deposite of arms at the Mill of the Rev. W. H. Wilson in Frederick County, said to be 1100 navy revolvers, my informer (a Rev. also) was under the impression they had been seized by some portion of your command, I alluded to the fact in the Grand Jury room (U.S. Court,) and was requested by that body to apply to you for the truth, and if so, the necessary evidence.

Any communication to this jury through the Marshal or myself will be promptly attended to.

GEO. H. JOHNSON, P. M. at Mechanicstown, Frederick county, wants the "Family Visitor" suppressed.

Mechanicstown, Fredk Co., Md.
Sept. 17, 1861.

Maj. Genl. Banks,

Sir: I herewith send you a copy of the "Family Visitor," a secession paper published in this place. I submitted it to the inspection of the P. O. Department, and they referred me to you as the proper person to act in the matter. I hope you will give it your immediate attention, for believe me it is a source of great annoyance to the Loyal Citizens of this vicinity.

The circulation is about 4 or 500 copy's, and certainly has a considerable influence, over the minds of its subscribers. Besides it keeps up a continual state of excitement in our midst.

Hoping you may give this your immediate attention and that the paper may be suppressed at an early date

FREDERICK SCHLEY, Frederick, Md.
Respectfully referred to Maj. Genl. Banks.

Frederick, October 6, 1861.

Hon. John A. Kasson,
First Asst. P. M. General,
Washington, D. C.

Sir: On my return home last night, I received your letter, postmarked 4th inst. I have since had an interview with my friend, Brig. Genl. Cooper, commanding the forces on the Potomac above Harpers ferry, to ascertain what military vigilance is used there. I find his pickets are not numerous enough, and cannot be made so with the force at his present disposal, to guard against illicit crossings of the river at night. He has promised however, to put a more vigilant officer in charge to-morrow, in the immediate vicinity of Sharpsburg. I learn also, that a mail is carried to and fro, between Shepperdstown, Va., and Sharpsburg, Md., once or twice a week; but that the letters come to the Sharpsburg office open. This mail is said to be permitted for the benefit of union men in Virginia; but unless I become convinced, on my visit, that the Postmaster is perfectly reliable and careful, I shall recommend that the mails at that point be subjected to military surveillance and all letters for Virginia opened.

I will enter further on the duty assigned me without delay.

On Wednesday, a man named Krantz, called at my office and gave me two Leesburg, Va., newspapers, of a late date. I had seen him here once before within the past month, and derived the impression from him, that he came and went by military permission. I have no reason to question his loyalty, but unless he be in the employ of the government, the facility allowed him is full of temptation, and the fact that he brought me papers is suggestive of the probability that he may be a medium of communication for others. He lives near Piedmont, and I shall inquire into his case & that of others like him.

There is, I am credibly informed, a regular correspondence kept up between Maryland rebels in Virginia and their friends in Baltimore, by private conveyance across the river, about a mile below Edwards' Ferry. The parties engaged in this transmission of correspondence, do not make use of the mails, but rely on private conveyance. Of course, the P. O. Department is not responsible for their escape. And Genl. Cooper says, that above and beyond his command, there is frequent and only half-concealed commerce and communication, (outside the mails) with Virginia, by way of Hancock & its vicinity. I shall endeavor to ascertain the facts & report to you.

With great respect, Your ob't serv't,
FREDERICK SCHLEY.

Legislative Matters.

Head Quarters Army of the Potomac.
Washington, September 12, 1861.

Confidential.

Maj. Genl. N. P. Banks,
U. S. A.

General,

After full consultation with the Presdt. Sect'ys of State, War, etc., it has been decided to effect the operation proposed for the 17th. Arrangements have been made to have a Govt. Steamer at Annapolis to receive the prisoners & carry them to their destination.

Some four or five of the chief men in the affair are to be arrested to-day. When they meet on the 17th, you will please have every thing prepared to arrest the whole party & be sure that none escape.

It is understood that you arranged with Genl. Dix & Gov. Seward the modus operandi. It has been intimated to me that the meeting might take place on the 14th, please be prepared. I would be glad to have you advise me frequently of your arrangements in regard to this very important matter.

If it is successfully carried out it will go far towards breaking the back bone of the rebellion. It would probably be well to have a special train quietly prepared to take the prisoners to Annapolis.

I leave this exceedingly important affair to your tact and discretion—& have but one thing to impress upon you —the absolute necessity of secrecy and success.

With the highest regard,
I am, my dear General,
Your sincere friend,
GEO. B. McCLELLAN,

COPELAND'S Report. Legislature, Sept. 16.

Frederick, Sept. 16, 1861.

Maj. Genl. Banks.

Dear Sir: I find that there is some probability of no quorum—this is particularly Genl. S.'s opinion. He thinks the whole thing is crushed by the arrest. But there is reason to believe he is mistaken.

Noakes is here—and says there are at least 25 in town: that they have spread the rumor that there will be no quorum in order to lull attention, but that there will be enough to meet and adjourn to a place outside the town.

He saw to-night 4 carriages and a party of men come in one of the back roads, and go to a drinking saloon, where they were loud and deep in threats and imprecations—they left the tavern and came into the town and separated, where he could not tell as he was on foot. He has got no evidence of any messenger from Va.—thinks no one is here.

But there is one bad thing, Genl. Dix has sent his son here, and a Major, and the Provost Marshal of B——, & party of Police to make arrests. I have tried to get them sent back early in the first train to-morrow, accompanied, at least as far as Monocacy, by Mr. Dix. He does not like to get up and go at that time. It is a mistake.

Genl. S. has no particular information and wants to shield some personal friends—would like, for the future, to make it easy for some men.

I think that I shall get a plan arranged to take a number at any rate. The arrests in B. have terrified them very much, and all profess obedience there.

None of the members from the Eastern Shore have come up yet, which inclines me to wait for day after to-morrow.

I regret your letters to Col. R. did not put the matter more under my especial control, as he is rather disinclined to be as careful and patient as is desirable, and I do not feel authorized to direct.

If anything occurs to you send by messenger to me, care of Col. R. I am at the U. S. Hotel.

In haste, very resp'y,
R. M. COPELAND.

Young Dix tells me his errand was to meet you, and give you a list of names of men to be arrested—nothing more. He will give me the paper to-morrow and await orders. You will get this at six—a messenger can return in three hours.

Copy of LETTER OF INSTRUCTIONS concerning Legislature.

Important and confidential.

Head Quarters,
Camp near Darnestown,
16th September.

Lt. Col. Ruger,
Commanding 3rd Wisconsin Regt.
on special service at Frederick.

Sir,—The Legislature of Maryland is appointed to meet in special session to-morrow—Tuesday—September 17th. It is not impossible that the members or a portion of them may be deterred from meeting there on account of certain arrests recently made in Baltimore. It is also quite possible that on the first day of meeting the attendance of members may be small. Of the facts, as to this matter, I shall see that you are well informed, as they transpire. It becomes necessary that any meeting of this Legislature, at any place or time, shall be prevented. You will hold yourself and your command in readiness, to arrest the members of both houses, a list of such as you are to detain will be enclosed to you, herewith, among are to be specially included the Presiding officers of the two houses, Secretaries, clerks, and all subordinate officers. Let the arrests be certain, and allow no chance of failure—the arrests should be made while they are in session, I think.

You will upon receipt of this quietly examine the premises. I am informed that escape will be impossible, if the entrance to the building be held by you, of that you will judge upon examination. If no session is held, you will arrest such members as can be found in Frederick. The process of arrest should be to enter both houses at the same time, announcing that they were arrested by orders of the governt., command them to remain as they are subject to your orders. Any resistance will be forcibly suppressed whatever the consequences,—upon the arrests being effected, the members that are to be detained, will be placed on board a special train for Annapolis—where a steamer will await them.

Every thing in the execution of these orders is confided to your secresy, discretion and promptness.

---

COPELAND'S REPORT. Md. Legislature. Sept. 17.

Frederick, Md., Sept. 17, 1861.

Dear Sir: The arrests in Baltimore have entirely broken down and disorganized the secession element in the Legislature, and much less than a quorum have assembled—of the members present the larger number are union men, who encouraged by our presence, are here to face the enemy. I have had pickets set since noon in all the woods leading to this place, with orders to let no one go out unless they are right, and to let all come in who wish. I went down to Frederick Junction with a trusty man to see who should come up and make arrangements for them—only seven came. We find that there are only about six bad specimens here, but that there is a chance that more may arrive. We have spotted the house where these men board, and shall arrest them to-night. I have let the train go to B—— with a sergeant who will come up on the train and will spot, and if needs be arrest any man who tries to leave the train at Monocacy. To-day some persons left at the station below M—— to drive here in a carriage. As yet the Legislature has not convened, when it does I shall have the trap sprung on them. Your letter has just arrived. I will attend to it as you wish. You have by this time learned of the arrests in Baltimore yesterday which has alarmed all. I sent Mr. Dix and the Policemen away on the train, and went myself as we were surrounded by a crowd in which were ten of the worst men. They now think we are all gone. I and two of the Policemen returned a foot.

Noakes is on the watch to find out where every man lives, and I do not think we can fail to get some, but the worst men are too wary to come here. I shall send this to you just as soon as I can find a messenger, and shall telegraph when the arrest is completed.

General S. and all his friends believe that nothing can be effected as those whom we shall take are the least conspicuous. I shall arrest the clerks of the two houses who are mentioned as particularly venomous. Nothing more occurs to me now. I will add whatever happens later.

Truly your obedient servt.

R. MORRIS COPELAND.

To Maj. Genl. N. P. Banks

It is now 5 p. m. We have arrested 12 of the worst men, and are progressing very well. Whe shall get the whole 18 I think, and if any come in on the train to-night we will bag them too. Genl. S. is invaluable. We have been besieged for passes—every avenue being blocked. It has taken 3 men all the time to write and enquire into the merits of the case. No news from Virginia, all seems quiet as far as we can learn. The house met to-day. Was called to order by the clerk—four members present, and adjourned until to-morrow noon.

COPLAND'S Report of arrest of Members of Maryland Legislature. Sept. 18.

Frederick, Md., Sept. 18, 1861.

To Maj. Genl. Banks,

Darnestown,

Sir: I have just telegraphed to Genl. Dix, that we have seized seven members of the house of a very bitter character, and from officers, clerks, &c. who are intensely bitter, and are said to have been very forward and to have kept some of the weaker men up to the work. Several arrests were made of violent or resisting persons whom I shall let go after the others are gone. I shall send four men at least to Genl. Dix at Baltimore who are very bad men. I have advised Col. Ruger to send to Sharpsburg landing to seize 500 sacks salt which are waiting for the Southerners to come and take them, they have tried twice to do it. We have also heard of some arms which the Col. will look up. There is a very bitter man here, a Mr. Sinn who is currently reported by Genl. Shriver and others to be the medium of communication with the Southern Confederacy. The names of the members are, B. S. Salmon, R. C. Maccubin, J. H. Gordon, C. J. Durant, Thos. Claggett, Andrew Kessler, & Bernard Mills. We shall get T. Lawrence Jones. The officers of the Legislature. J. N. Brewer Chief Clerk Senate, Thos. Moore Reading do. Saml. Penrose Jr. Assistant, N. Kilgore, Reading do. Milton Kidd Chief of the House. Mr. Jones is taken, Edw'd Houser, Citizen. Riley (very bad) printer to the House. John Hogan (very bad) citizen,—Joseph Elkins do.—Mr. Mason Folder to the House. We shall leave here for Head Quarters this afternoon. The arrests were nearly all seized by the Policemen.

I am yours respy
R. MORRIS COPELAND,
Aid de Camp.

Mr. McCubbin is a person whom I should recommend you to set at large if he takes the oath, which I have no doubt he will. He is brother-in-law to General Hammond and a man much respected—also a man of rather timid nature and greately troubled by his arrest. General Shriver has been very active for us, and is very earnest that we should let him go on these terms. If you can do it, it will be well to telegraph to Annapolis to have the oath tendered, and release him. I should do it under my instructions, only that Col. Ruger thinks he has no authority to allow any man on the list any liberty.

Sir:

The member from Annapolis City Mr. McCubbin has many qualifications which recommend him to you as a person to be released on his taking the oath.

I have communicated the facts to Maj. Genl. Banks, and have urged him to telegraph to Annapolis that he may be released on taking the oath—I will communicate further in my report—will you attended to this matter.

Copy of Report to Gov. SEWARD, on arrest of Members of Legislature. Sept. 20.

Head Quarters.
Camp near Darnestown,
September 20, 1861.

Maj. Genl. McClellan,
Comd'g Army of Potomac.

Honorable W. H. Seward, Sec'y of State.

Sir: I have the order to report in obedience to the orders of the Secretary of War and the General commanding the Army of the Potomac, transmitted to me by letter of the 12th inst., that all the members of the Maryland Legislature assembled at Frederick City on the 17th instant, known or suspected to be disloyal in their relations to the Government, have been arrested. The opening of the session was attended chiefly by Union men, and after rigid examination, but nine secession members were found in the city. These were arrested with the clerk of the senate and sent to Annapolis according to my orders, on the 18th instant—under guard and safely lodged on board a Govt. steamer in waiting for them: of their destination thence I had no direction. The names of the parties thus arrested and disposed of were as follows, viz.:

B. F. Salmon, Frederick.
William R. Miller, Cecil co.
Isaiah H. Gordon, Alleghany co.
Lawrence Jones, Talbot co.
Bernard Mills, Carroll co.
R. C. McCubbin, Annapolis.
Thomas Claggett, Frederick.
Clarke J. Durant, St. Mary's co.
Andrew Kessler, Jr., Frederick.
J. N. Brewer, chief clerk of the senate.

No meeting of the senate occurred—but three senators were in town, and these were Union men. Three subordinate officers of the senate, the chief clerk and printer of the house, and one or two citizens, were also arrested, but released after the departure of the members for Annapolis—upon taking the oath of allegiance. Milton Kidd, Clerk of the House, is in the last stages of consumption, beyond the power of doing harm, and was released upon taking the oath, and making a solemn declaration to act no further with the Legislature under any circumstances whatever—this course was adopted upon the urgent solicitation of the union members of the Legislature present. The same parties desired the release of R. C. McCubbin, of Annapolis—upon the same conditions, I telegraphed to the commander of the steamer that he might be left at Annapolis under sufficient guard until the orders of the Govt. could be ascertained.

Col. Ruger, 3rd Wisconsin Regt., my aid de camp, and a detachment of Police, rendered efficient aid. Sufficient information was obtained as to preparations for board, &c., to lead to the belief that the attendance of members would have been large had not the arrests of some of the leaders been made at Baltimore on Saturday and Monday, before the day of meeting.

I regret the attempt at Frederick was not more successful.

Collector HOFFMAN concerning Maryland Eection:

Custom House, Collectors Office.
Baltimore Oct. 17th, 1861.

Dear Genl.

Your note in reply to my request was reed this morning.

I owe you many thanks for the prompt order given to Major Gould & the trouble you have taken to furnish me with so speedy an acknowledgment.

So far as we are able to preceive there will be no regular or serious opposition to the union state Ticket.

The peace men will struggle to maintain their supremacy in one branch of the Legislature, (Senate) & to prevent which it will be necessary for us to carry the doubtful & hardly contested Counties of Queen Anne's, Calvert & Prince George. To this end we shall devote all our energies until the day of election.

The bold and vigorous policy inaugurated by yourself whilst in command here has been productive of the most salutary results. We no longer hear the mutterings of secession upon the corners of the streets. As one decided step has followed another the mutterings have grown fainter each day until secession, if it has not become extinct, has at least been subdued and throughly humiliated.

I have no fears that the result of the Election in November will be a complete vindication of the loyalty and patriotic devotion of Maryland to the Union & Constitution as made by our Fathers.

Once again accept my thanks for your kindness & believe me Sincerely your friend,

HENRY W. HOFFMAN.

Maj'r Gen. N. P. Banks, U. S. A.

My dear sir:

I should have written at an earlier day but delayed for return of Geo. W. Howard, who had been sent down the Potomac by Maj'r Genl. McClellan, and soon after his, H's, return the papers represented you to have gone with your forces into Virginia. Indeed I dislike to occupy a moment of your closely occupied time, and write now only because I feel it due from me, in view of yr uniform courtesy and kindness to me; of which I shall always entertain, most grateful recollections.

You will excuse me I am sure for suggesting the importance of looking closely to Maryland, until our election is over, 6th Nov;

The Confederates will endeavor to effect something by which to operate on our elections—you may suppose My Dear Sir, that I am anxious to have a Killing majority rolled up agt Secessionism. Not only am I, and is Md deeply interested, but the Govt is greatly concerned. Will it be possible to have Col. Kenly's Regt. placed near Balt., temporarily, so as to save their votes, I hope so—I have the honor to be with very great respect

Pursuant to directions from the Secretary of War of the 28th instant of which I enclose a copy, the Major General Commanding directs that such soldiers of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Regiments of Maryland Volunteers as may be within the limits of your command, receive furloughs for such a length of time, as will enable them to reach the place wherein they may be entitled to vote by the 6th of November. Wherever it may be necessary in order to faciliate the presence of these men at their places of voting, to furnish them transportation, it may be furnished It is desired that the most liberal and prompt circulation may be given to these instructions in order to secure with certainty the carrying into effect the design proposed.

Sufficient time is to be allowed the soldiers thus furloughed to enable them to return after voting without exceeding the term fixed for their furlough; but a prompt return is desired.

Whenever it may be necessary, the absent soldiers should be replaced for the time by other troops.

The General Commanding desires that the receipt of this communication be acknowledged at once.

Instructions from R. B. MARCY, Chf of Staff, concerning Maryland Elections.

Head Quarters Army of the Potomac.
Washington, Oct. 29th, 1861.

General: There is an apprehension among union citizens in many parts of Maryland of an attempt at interference with their rights of suffrage by disunion citizens on the occasion of the election, to take place on the 6th November next.

In order to prevent this the Major General Commanding directs that you send detachments of a sufficient number of men to the different points in your vicinity where the elections are to be held to protect the union voters, and to see that no disunionists are allowed to intimidate them or in any way to interfere with their rights.

He also desires you to arrest and hold in confinement till after the election all disunionists who are known to have returned from Virginia recently and who show themselves at the Polls, and to guard effectually against any invasion of the peace and order of the elections. For the purpose of carrying out these instructions you are authorized to suspend the "Habeas Corpus." Genl. Stone has received similar instructions to these. You will please confer with him as to the particular points that each shall take the control of.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,

Provost Marshal STONE in regard to Elections.

Frederick City, Md.
Oct. 31st, 1861.

Major Genl. Banks,

Dear Sir: The Genl. has been absent from the City since Monday, but will probably be home this evening. I will present your letter as soon as he returns and forward you the result.

On my way to this place I met a man near Hyattstown by the name of Waters, who remarked to me incidentally, that he was fearful there was trouble brewing for election day. He says that young Leyton has been absent about two weeks scouring about the country, and has also visited Baltimore, and as he is known to be a strong secessionist, there is no doubt he has been arranging some matters in regard to elections. Waters asked me if I thought Genl. Banks would send a Guard to the different places where the voting was to take place, I stated to him that I had no doubt Genl. Banks would, if applied to from a responsible source, send the required Guard.

I have written a pass for some of your friends to visit you at Head Quarters, and were anxious to start this evening.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Capt. H B. STONE,
Provost Marshal.

Genl. SHRIVER, Fredk. on election districts in Fredk. Co. No answer.

Frederick, Nov. 1, 1861.

Genl. N. P. Banks.

My Dear Sir:

On my return home to-night your favor of the 30th ult. was handed me by Capt. Stone.

In one County there are two or three districts in which our friends apprehend interference by disloyal men on election day. I have consulted with some of our most reliable friends and we all concur in the opinion that a body of men thrown into Frederick on Monday & Tuesday next, and then divided into squads and placed in the different districts of the County on the day of election, will not only prevent disloyal men from interfering with and overawing our friends, but will have the additional effect of keeping such men from the Polls. Cavalry would answer better than Infantry as our county is divided into seventeen districts, and some of them twenty & twenty five miles off in a mountainous country. I would also suggest that whatever force is sent here be placed under command of Capt. Stone, who seems fully to understand the duty to be performed. In the 1st Md. Regt. commanded by Col. Kenly there are at least fifty men entitled to their votes in our county, they are principally to be found in the company commanded by Capt. B. H. Schley, we should be gratified to have these men sent home to the election.

With great respect, I am very truly, yours,

EDWD. SHRIVER.

Report from Col. J. W. GEARY Concerning Elections &c.

Encampment 28th Regt. P. V., Point of Rocks, Md.
Nov. 8, 1861.

Capt. R. Morris Copeland,
Acting Asst. Adjutant General.

Sir: Previous to the election a number of enemies to the Union in this State preliminated schemes for disturbing the peace of the various precincts I had several of the most prominent actors in this, among whom was a candidate for senator, arrested before election and held until to-day. I had detailments from various companies of my Regiment, with proper officers, stationed in Sandy Hook, Petersville, Jefferson, Urbana, New Market, Buckeystown, Frederick City, and other places where the polls were held. Owing to the presence of the troops everything progressed quietly, and I am happy to report a Union victory in every place within my jurisdiction. Some of the Maryland troops visited the polls with their muskets, which I directed to be given up, to be returned at the expiration of their furloughs, mostly dating until to-day.

A few days previous to election, bodies of cavalry, equipped, varying in numbers from fifty to several hundred, were visible in and about Harper's Ferry, and several encampments were seen in the direction of Charlestown. They gave every evidence of the intention of a combined attack upon our force in that neighborhood. During Monday their action was openly insolent, and their preparations and activity indicated that an attack was imminent. Dragoons rode about the town, and women were seen leaving with bundles for the direction of Bolivar and Charlestown. A cannon was also brought into the town.

A few shots were fired across the river at a group of my officers standing near the canal bridge, and my upper pickets nearly opposite the Virginia Ore Banks were fired upon by about twenty-five cavalry, but fortunately without effect. I had issued orders not to engage them until their movements would assume a shape by which we could find them in a force guaranteeing a battle, meanwhile deluding them into an idea of our incapacity to defend ourselves.

Upon receipt of the news of the gathering of their forces, on Monday evening with a detachment of picked men and a gun of the Battery, I went to Harper's Ferry, and before day-light had the gun placed in a position on Maryland Heights to command both Harper's Ferry and Bolivar, and then posted my detachment at intervals concealed, opposite the Virginia Ore Banks, where numbers of rebel cavalry were seen for days previous. A most vigilant watch was kept from all these points, but the town was perfectly deserted and quiet, and only a small body of men appeared opposite the Infantry post, who were put to flight by a few shots.

The presence of my men encouraged a great number of Union men to vote, who otherwise would not have done so through fear of molestation.

Harper's Ferry is now avoided by the rebels, either from change of intention, or fear of demonstrations being made against them.

On the evening of my departure a number of the enemy were seen half-way up the mountain opposite Point of Rocks. I had one of the guns taken down and fired several shells among them, which put them to flight without an answering shot.

I have reliable authority from Leesburg that many of the troops at that point have been called off in the direction of Lewinsville, at or near which place it is the intention of the rebels to give battle to our troops. The same authority informs me that a large number of troops have been withdrawn from Manasses and sent to Charleston under the personal command of Beauregard.

I have information that there is but one Regiment at Leesburg. If it is desirable to take the place, this would be a favorable opportunity to do so.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JNO. W. GEARY,
Col. 28th Regt. P. V., Commdg Post.

Letter from Genl. SHRIVER Concerning Elections.
Recd Nov 8, no answer.

Frederick, Nov. 8, 1861.

Genl. N. P. Banks.

Dear Sir: Our election passed off quietly and the result gratifying, far exceeding the expectations of our friends. We feel much indebted to the Military under the command of Major Stone for their polite and gentlemanly deportment—in no case, so far as I have knowledge, interposing any difficulty in the way of legal voting—on the contrary, their presence at the Polls had the effect of producing order and preserving the peace, thereby affording to every citizen the opportunity of exercising the right of suffrage.

So far as the returns of the Election throughout the state have reached us, the result is of such a character as to leave no doubt of the loyalty of Maryland and I hope a determination of her people to stand by the Government at all and every hazard.

I write in haste as Major Stone is about starting.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your friend,
EDW'D SHRIVER.

Secretary of State, Relating to the release of the late Police Commissioner Mr. HOWARD. July 5th, 1861.

General, I have the honor to acquaint you that yesterday, Messrs. Reverdy Johnson and John P. Kennedy called on the President and recommended that Mr. Howard, one of the Police Commissioners there recently arrested, and now confined by your orders, should be released. The President received the recommendation with all the respect due to the acknowledged patriotism and high social standing of those gentlemen. Having considered the subject he instructs me to inform you that as he had entire confidence in your discretion, and in the sufficiency of the motive which led to the arrest, he preferred to leave to your discretion also the expediency of terminating it. If, therefore the application should be made to you, you will dispose o it accordingly.

I have the honor to be, General,

Petition of loyal Citizens of Baltimore for the release of the Rev. Wm. H. WILSON.

Balto. Oct 1, 1861.

Major General Banks.

Dear Sir: We learn with regret that Rev. Wm. H. Wilson is still a prisoner, and we have thought it might releive your own mind in the case, to know, that Mr. Wilson has always in his conversations upon the subject, repudiated Secession as a political heresy, and, though his sympathies were with the southern people, he often openly expressed himself in favor of the Union.

We also take this opportunity to say, that most of us have known Mr. Wilson for years, and some of us have had ample opportunity to test his character, and we beleive him so be an honest, and honorable man. We are all devoted Union men, and would not ask, or advise anything contrary to the interests of the Government, but sincerely hope that you may feel justified in releasing Mr. Wilson.

H. GROVERMAN, J. H. CURLEY,
GEORGE R. RITTENHOUSE, JOSEPH MERREFIELD,
LEWIS KALBFUS, MILES WHITE.

I beleive the signers of the above petition to be loyal friends of the Government.

GEO R DODGE
Provost Marshal.

MILTON WHITNEY of Baltimore asks Genl. Banks for a letter to the Govt. in favor of his Appt. as District Atty. Received Oct. 8th.

Baltimore, Oct. 8, 1861.

Gen. N. P. Banks,

Dear Sir: The Hon. H. Winter Davis, together with Mr. Hoffman, Collector, Mr. Purnell, Postmaster

Judge Bond and others, have united in recommending me to the Cabinet for District Att'y for Maryland. When approached in relation to this subject in the summer whilst in the country, I declined to have my name presented, but since my return to the City, in view of the treason cases pending in that Court & for other reasons I have consented, and would now like the appointment. My friends above named thought a letter from you would have more influence than all others, and I have taken the liberty of writing this letter and asking you the favor (if you think it consistent) of giving me a letter to the Cabinet favorable to my appointment.

Trusting I have not assumed to much in addressing you upon this subject, and asking you this favor, I would simply say that I have occupied the position of States Atty for five years, have had that experience, and in view of being a Massachusetts man, and having been persecuted upon that ground, would now like to be placed in that position INDEPENDENTLY of the people of Baltimore.

A letter directed to Baltimore will reach me.

With great respect, your ob't serv't,
MILTON WHITNEY.

Mr. MADDOX in relation to the arrest and detention of Thos. J. Claggett, late member of H. of Delegates of Md.

Oct. 10, 1861.

Major Genl. N. P. Banks,
Commanding, &c.

Sir: Dr. Thomas Maddox, of Washington county, Md., writes to me to-day in reference to the arrest of Thos. J. Claggett, and encloses a letter for Col. Crossman, which I enclose most respectfully to you.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
E. J. MADDOX,
Clk Q. M. Dept. U. S. A.

Woodlie, Washington County, Maryland.
Oct. 7, 1861.

The undersigned respectfully represents that Thomas J. Claggett, a member of the Legislature from Frederick County, now a State prisoner, is a quiet, peaceable farmer.

He has expressed himself to me as opposed to secession, which he believed would be impolitic and inexpedient. He has not resisted the State or National authority. He has not given "aid or comfort to the enemy." He corresponds with no one in Virginia. His friends would like to know the charges against the said Claggett, in order that they may be disproved. Please let me know, and through me the family, the charges against the said Claggett. We have an abiding conviction that the charges of conspiracy against the peace and dignity of the State, or a disposition to force the State into secession, is without foundation.

Please let me know the charges against Mr. Claggett; we have an abiding conviction that they cannot be sustained by proof.

Not having the honor of an acquaintance with Genl. Banks, the party to whom I was referred by Col. Kinly, I solicit the information of Genl. Banks, thro' Col. Crossman. By giving the information Col. Crossman will greatly oblige

His obdt ser'vt,

To Col. Crossman. THOMAS MADDOX
